Cancellation: No deposit is required at the time of registration to guarantee participation in the course; however, full payment is due 7 calendar days before the course begins and will not be refunded once registration for the IICRC exam has been completed on the students' behalf. Substitution of course participants is not permitted after payment has been received and exam registration completed. Abatement Technologies Limited reserves the right to cancel any scheduled event if the number of students falls below a required minimum number of registrations, in which case full refunds will be given for any payments received. No liability is assumed by the organizers for changes in course dates or instructor. Limitation of liability: Circumstances may arise where, because of a default on the trainers or our part or other liability, you are entitled to recover damages from us. In each such instance, regardless of the basis on which you are entitled to recover damages from us including fundamental breach, negligence, misrepresentation or other contract or tort claim, we are liable only for direct damages up to the charges for the Course or Course Material that is the subject of the claim. This limit also applies to any of our subcontractors. It is the maximum for which we are collectively responsible. Indemnity: You agree to defend, indemnify and hold Abatement Technologies Limited, its officers, employees, agents and affiliates harmless from and against any claims, demands, damages, causes of action, losses or judgments arising from: you or your participants' use of the Course Materials or other information provided in the Course, whether oral or written; any breach by you or your participants of these Terms; or any material you or your participants submit, post or otherwise provide in any way. This section will survive the completion or termination of the Course. Warranties: Abatement Technologies Limited takes great pride in its Course offerings, but we cannot guarantee the outcomes or results of any Course you may take with us. The success of any Course depends significantly on the effort and commitment of the participants. The use of Course Materials, including the use of information obtained through an Abatement Technologies Limited Course, is directed to those who have the appropriate degree of experience to use and apply their contents, and Abatement Technologies accepts no responsibility whatsoever arising in any way from any use of or reliance on Course information including Course Materials. In issuing and making the courses available, Abatement Technologies Limited is not undertaking to render professional or other services on behalf of any person or entity or to perform any duty owed by any person or entity to someone else. Except as expressly stated in these Terms, or in any applicable license agreement, and to the extent not prohibited by law, all Courses and Course Materials, including any documentation, publications, software programs or code, and other information provided by or on behalf of Abatement Technologies Limited or its suppliers to you or any participant are furnished on an "AS-IS" basis, without
